BIOGRAPHY

Howard M. Zaritsky is a retired attorney whose practice with the Fairfax, Virginia law firm of Zaritsky & Zaritsky, was limited to estate planning and administration and related tax matters. Before that, he was for eight years a legislation attorney for the Congressional Research Service, where his responsibilities included advising members of congress and committee staff on tax matters. He has been a lecturer at most major tax and estate planning institutes, including the University of Miami (Heckerling) Estate Planning Institute, where he is a member of the advisory committee. He is the author or co-author of over 200 articles, three Tax Management Portfolios, and a dozen treatises, including: Tax Planning for Family Wealth Transfers at Death, Tax Planning for Family Wealth Transfers During Life, and Tax Planning with Life Insurance (with Stephan Leimberg) (all published by Thomson-Reuters/WG&L). He is tax editor of Probate Practice Reporter, a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, and a former Chair of the Virginia Bar Association Section on Wills, Trusts & Estates. He lives on a farm with his wife and several groundhogs, near the thriving metropolis of Rapidan, Virginia. See www.howardzaritsky.com.
